- OFF STUMP GUARD PENALTY of 60 + is considered as Automatic loss.
- SLOW AND EFFORT BALL PENALTY is Automatic loss.
- WIDE LINE BOWLING (more than 2 balls in a over) Will be monitored by the admins and if any complaints it will be reviewed.

- Anything between the white & orange line is considered as wide line .
- On the line of orange is fine
- The wide line bowling complaints will be reviewed and handled by admins and admin decision will be Final.

PENALTIES

- If a Bowler bowls a weak delivery, Free four should be given by removing the fielder on leg side.
- If a wicket is taken in a weak release the bowling team should give total of 36 RUNS , which is

(a) Two wide fours

(b) No ball followed by Free hit is Mandatory in those 36 Runs.

- If bowling teams bowls a extra effort or slow ball or extra bouncer or Yorker they have to bowl a wide and if wicket is taken they should follow 36 runs penalty.
- If bowling team fails to change field after power play or if they have wrong field , they have to give 5 Runs (wide+Four) and if wicket taken its 36 Run penalty.
- its Batting team who should point out that it wrong field to get penalty of four runs and penalty of 36 runs if wicket taken. No matter how many balls bowled with wrong field , once informed by batting team its just considered as one penalty (4 runs or 36 runs) .
- If it is found out after match is over then it will be automatic loss.
- If a bowler hits stumps during Run up its Automatic loss for the bowling team.
- Yorker / bouncer going for wide is considered ball counted and weak going for wide is considered dead ball (since not in play) .
- “A yorker or bouncer that goes for a wide will be counted as a ball, and the bowler cannot bowl it again. If the bowler delivers it by mistake and it results in a dot ball, then the bowler must bowl a wide. If it goes wide by itself, it will be counted as a dead ball.
